Montessori Teacher Leaders - Twin Cities	Are you a Montessori leader with a thirst for social justice and an entrepreneurial drive? Wildflower Schools are a network of teacher led schools that are intentionally diverse, one-room, multi-age Montessori schools, serving kids age 0-12. Our schools uniquely designed to fit within a neighborhood shopfront/community facility, are led by 2 teachers, and are committed to serving a racially and socioeconomically diverse mix of families. We are currently opening schools in the Twin Cities area and are looking for founding Teacher Leaders to join us. We empower our teacher leaders to be innovative and create their own beautiful child centered environment. The Wildflower Foundation assists and supports teacher leaders every step of the way from coordinating startup to teaching in the classroom and managing day to day operations. Wildflower schools are teacher led and embedded in the community they serve, providing the opportunity for each site to manifest their own uniqueness based on the experiences of the teachers as well as the culture and essence of the community. We are looking for Montessori leaders who are innovative, entrepreneurial, generous, committed to serving diverse communities, passionate about the vision of Dr. Montessori, eager to learn, and ready to engage in the startup process.	Please inquire	DOQ	ongoing	To learn more, please send an email, with your resume attached, to Maya Soriano at maya.soriano@wildflowerschools.org. In your email, please briefly summarize why you are interested in Wildflower and feel free to include questions you have on your mind.	June 2017
